TRAINING

CHC40421 Certificate IV in Youth Work

New Futures Training provides nationally accredited vocational training and employment support for people from migrant, refugee and asylum seeker background.

As a not-for-profit, community organisation we are committed to creating opportunities for diverse communities. Our courses are industry focused, language supported and affordable. Our trainers come from diverse backgrounds with extensive industry experience.

Course overview

The role of a Youth Worker is diverse, with many exciting and challenging career opportunities. You will learn to develop and facilitate programs for young people through a range of community-based programs addressing the social, behavioural, health and welfare, developmental and protection needs of young people. VICSEG New Futures has supported the holistic development of young people for over 20 years, through a range of community-based programs. Our trainers have extensive experience working in the youth sector. You will learn how to develop, plan and facilitate youth programs. You will gain valuable experience by participating in practical simulations covering well-being and protection needs of young people.
